

Financial Terms:

- A non-refundable deposit of £100 is required (for each party member), which is to be paid no later than 30 days after confirmation of booking.
- Any unpaid cheques will incur an additional charge of £20
- Anyone cancelling during or before a shooting break will be liable for the full costs for that break.
- All prices are fixed and to be paid in full at the end of the shooting break to your guildler.
- North East Shooting will not be liable for any price increase made by any associated hotel which is providing accommodation before or during the trip.
- There will be an extra £3 processing fee per bird shot over the amount of birds the customer is willing to take home at the end of the trip.
- Clients are urged to ensure they have cancellation insurance. Payments can only be refunded if we can re-let the dates booked (less a cancellation fee). Any changes to this booking may incur an administration fee.
- If clients lose time on all or part of a shooting or stalking day due to their delay, illness or other reason or choose to cancel any stalking outings, the North East Shooting Breaks will do its best to provide the sport and expectation booked, but there can be no redress against North East Shooting Breaks.
- All prices include VAT if applicable; prices may increase if the rate of VAT is increased.

General Terms

- All members of the shooting party MUST supply their name: address: signature and insurance number on the reverse of the terms and conditions when sending a deposit for your shooting break.
- Non UK residents require to have a UK visitors permit and this takes approximately 30 days to be processed by Grampian Police. In order for North East Shooting Breaks to apply for this, the EU Gun pass is required (photocopies are not acceptable)
- All decoying equipment and hide material will be supplied by North East Shooting Breaks and customers are required to respect this as broken/damaged equipment has to be replaced and any damage will be charged for to the customer.
- All shooting with North East Shooting Breaks takes place over private farmland and customers are asked to respect the farmer's property and equipment.
- Anyone using a shotgun or firearm must be in possession of a valid certificate. No FAC shotguns are to be used to shoot geese.
max 3 shot semi auto's shotguns ONLY
- If the number of guns confirmed at the time of booking does not appear for the actual shoot, the charge for the missing person/s will be split equally between the rest of the party.
- Please be aware of dogs when shooting, North East Shooting Breaks will not be liable for any accidents to client's dogs.
- Any injury to your guilders dogs caused by any client will be charged in full to the client responsible
- Bag expectations are subject to reasonable accuracy of the guns. We reserve the right to cancel any shooting with no refund for any gun(s) behaving in an unsportsmanlike or dangerous manner.
- For all shotgun shooting, all expectations are given in good faith. Many estates will count the number of shots fired. We cannot accept responsibility if sufficient shots have been fired, but the bag does not reach expectations.

Weather

- There is normally no refund if days are cancelled due to foul weather

Health and Safety

- When Customers or your guider is picking up shot birds DO NOT shoot.
- Do not discharge any weapons unless your guider tells you it is OK.

Insurance

- All clients must have 3rd party shooting insurance, details of insurance including expiry dates must be given to North East Shooting Breaks.

Geese Shooting

- Only Pinkfoot and Graylag geese can be shot within season.
- As with any wild bird, there can be no guarantee as to the number of birds shot on any one day
- Goose shooting charges are £90 per person per day with a minimum payment 6 guns totalling £540:00 per group per flight,

Deer

- As a general rule, a fair chance at a Roe Buck counts if a clear shot is possible at a range of up to 120 metres and for a stag up to 180 metres. However, if a client chooses to shoot at any range, that decision is his responsibility.
- All stalking clients must satisfy the estate they are capable of shooting a target with reasonable accuracy - the estate reserves the right to cancel or postpone
- stalking with no right to refunds if the rifle is unable to perform satisfactorily to the target.
- Trophy preparation for Roe Bucks. For all grounds (with the sole exception of quality Roe Buck areas) the guide will normally cut the heads long or short nose. The cleaning of the heads is only sufficient for Customs & Airline regulations so that most of the meat and soft tissue is removed. If clients wish trophies to be cleaned and prepared more thoroughly or require full head uncut, they should either ask the guide if this is possible and pay extra charges or take them home and use a local taxidermist for the final bleaching and cleaning.

Brown Hares

- When shooting please DO NOT shoot Brown Hares.

Ammunition

- All customers are requested to pick up spent cartridges and all other rubbish and leave the field in a clean and tidy condition.
- Cartridges and gun hire are available from Partridges LTD
